

His Royal Highness Prince Charles the Prince of the Wales

This is Vitalstatistix, a French Tribal Chief creation, who warned me as a child of the fear associated with believing that the sky is falling on our heads tomorrow.

I feel obliged to inform his Royal Highness, thirteen years ago in Brazil a competitive sporting event was devised - 'The Surfers of the Wheel – As Surfistas da Roda'. The proposed winner's trophy being a 'Sword in the Stone', one of three objects cocooned in moulded granite on a cave floor above a closed tunnel entrance believed to be storing the 'Ark of the Covenant'. Some may refer to the tunnel as a Bottomless Pit but I believe it to be an entrance to a Saxon Kingdom of Middle Earth located on a mountain top central to Tir Na-Nog (land of the forever young) - Ilha Santa Catarina, Brazil.

Sword in the Stone

Ilha Santa Catarina is also home to Mr Adnir Ramos who over the years on this beautiful island has made a remarkable series of discoveries associated with Archaeoastronomy, one discovery being an ancient astronomical sun clock consisting of very large stones that mark the day of the solstice.

Prince William's birthday is 21st June and up until last year this day coincided with the summer solstice, however the solstice date has now shifted to the 22nd June. A member of Facebook Group 'Mandela Effect Investigators' I'm not alone in having memory of the Sun shining with a yellow orange colour, but it is now a bright white, the days appear shorter and the Sun feels hotter and slightly larger as though it has dropped in height slightly and changed mood.

By chance - I recently enjoyed viewing on YouTube your presentation of Scotland's weather forecast for the 11th of May 2012 and am sure you have a greater depth of meteorological understanding than I. Believing the recent terrible bush fires in Australia and Britain's battering of icy storms have been caused by the 'Sky Beginning to Fall' I am waking to horrific nightmares of ocean waves a mile high and devastating flooding on the horizon, most probably caused by rapid melting of polar ice.

I live in hope that the 'Awakening of the Ark of the Covenant' brings with it a 'Global Peace Dividend' where those controlling Political Consciences can divert their military forces and resources in the direction of Civil Protection, Disaster Relief and Humanitarian Aid rather than that of Global Conflict – as prepared in part by recent appearance on the UK political scene of the 'Whore of Babylon'. Government plans to prohibit Coal burning arises further suspicion in me that our current government are not acting in the best interest of the future survival of the British people - as a mini Ice Age may be on the horizon.

In your role as Colonel in Chief to the Gurkha regiment, I request your consideration as to providing assistance to the Brazilian Army in the form of the fearless Hindu/ Buddhist soldier, who would positively influence others in reducing the fear associated with witnessing the 'Sky Beginning to Fall' and that Prince Harry assist in establishing the 'Los Angeles Embassy to the Ark of the Covenant and Caravan of Treasures.'

Yours truly and sincerely
