Dear Nicola Sturgeon

As introduction I wish to present a photograph of my grandfather Dr Robert Parker a Sinclair Clansman with two of his prized possessions.

Dr Parker a Scots Nationalist died 12 years before I was born – he had a second car for visiting patients an Alvis. As children my elder brother and I named his widow 'Granny Brighton', because that's where she lived. We would visit Granny Brighton at Easter, she living in a one bedroom balconied flat on Marine Parade, one evening during the 1970's I watched an edition of Blue Peter in her company. The BBC presenting the story to children of the theft of the 'Throne of Scone' from Westminster Abbey on Christmas day 1950, after the programme Granny Brighton told me a secret, Grandad Parker had had the Throne of Scone in his car boot during it's time in Scotland.

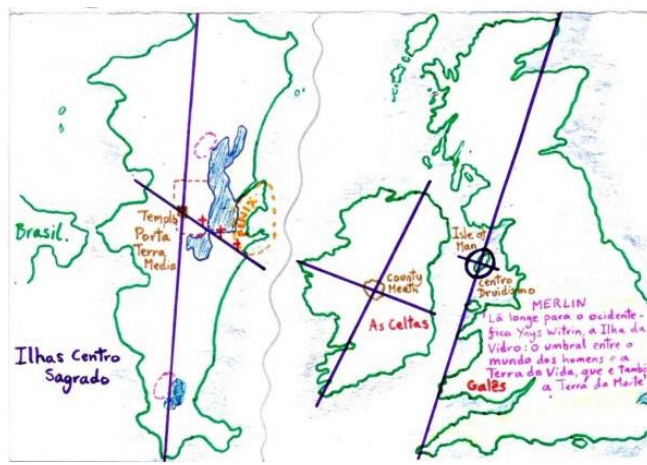

The Throne of Scone

Fifty five years after the Scots Nationalist's daring raid, having knowledge of Celtic sacred cartography of the British Isles I commenced an archaeological expedition of Ilha Santa Catarina, Brazil – see YouTube video 'From Jupiter Moon to the Time Tunnel' https://youtu.be/_4dH0nPP8jY

During 2007 I unearthed the 'Sword in the Stone'

Moulded in granite on a cave floor on a mountain top central to Iha Santa Catarina, this is a photo of one of three objects intended for a Coronation Ceremony. Deeper into the cave I believe is a guide that takes the owner to a location in the Yorkshire Pennines for recovering the 'Holy Grail Nuclear Fusion Combustion Cauldron' that encased this item – believed to be a decorative half cross.

On enclosed CD is an introductory letter to Prince Charles informing his Royal Highness as to a proposed sporting competition 'As Surfistas da Roda', intention being to use this item as a champion's trophy.

Sadly, my father and elder brother were unsupportive of my finds they both having served in the British Army and Royal Air Force and I am suspicious that information provided of archaeological discoveries was passed to my father's South African cousins son – an Iain Findlaiy of the Scots Masonic Blackwatch Regiment.

Living in this modern world but being blessed with the gift of interrupting guiding dreams, a consequence of having studied the shamanic works of Carlos Casteneda, I am in danger of becoming an autocrat. Thanks to the internet good ideas can be presented to an audience who can make their own minds up as to taking any action – see www.apollobath.co.uk.

If any Scots Nationalists would like to see the return of a Queen of Scotland, my life's path is providing a first class candidate from Penicuik whose work experience very much satisfies the Grail's desire to be passed into the hands of the Japanese. I hope recipients of enclosed CD at the United Nations London office, Russian Embassy, Scottish National Party and Cambridge University all take an interest in the 13 Moon Calendar of Peace <https://lawoftime.org/> and be unafraid of becoming involved in presenting Significant Religious Object discoveries to the greater population.

Kind regards

Graeme Parker
