During excavation of Ark Temple 2006-2007 I experienced lucid dreaming of being in a craft rapidly accelerating down a triangular launch tube as portrayed in Glen A Larson's 1978-1979 TV series Battlestar Galactica and shown the region marked above with a yellow ellipse designated as a pilot training area featuring a long launching catapult made of stone.

During excavation of Ark Temple I experienced lucid dreaming of accelerating downwards along a parabolic trajectory riding a stone trolley cart into the mountain, as portrayed in George Lucas' 1984 film Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom and witnessed the mountain central to Ilha Santa Catarina become a swirling vortex as portrayed in the 2008 film Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull final scene.

Lucid dreaming during excavation of Ark Temple informing:-

- Large mammals manifested from sculptured granite rock local to the region.
- A Saxon Kingdom of Middle Earth being a square root to the minus one inversion of our terrestrial plane.
- Large tunnels and chambers existing within the mountain comparable to those revealed by ground penetrating radar at Gunung Padang Indonesia.

The 2004 re-launch of Battlestar Galactica featured a Last Supper marketing scene.

Likewise 'Star Wars – Rogue One' features images of a destroyed city from where Imperial Forces are removing a store of Kyber Crystal (aka Grail Rock as used in Lightsabres) - required for the Death Star's planet destroying super weapon.

And Disney's 2013 production of The Lone Ranger features similar scenery of melted Tartarian buildings in Utah's Monument Valley. The Lone Ranger set during the American Civil War – an event staged by Rome to help reset America's Tartaria.

The Eye of Jupiter temple floor mandala is very similar to the Black Sun mandala that originated as a floor mosaic in the Wewelsburg castle Germany.

The original consisting of 12 radial sun runes while the Battlestar Galactica variant displays 13.

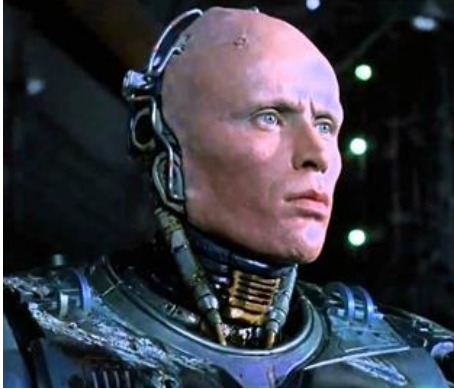

Episode 'Rapture' following 'Eye of Jupiter' features a sequence of a sun going nova above the temple forming the mandala in the sky as a shaft of light descends through the domed temple.

Resulting in the 'Final Five' Cylons materializing inside the temple.

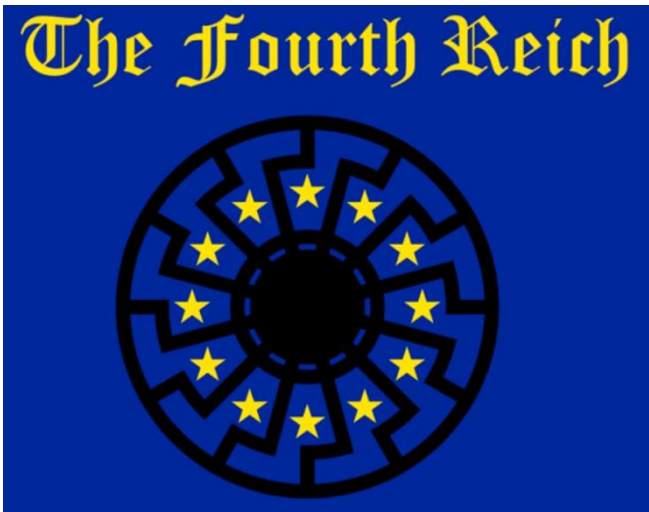

Glen A Larson furnished the Cylons and Al car Kitt with a scanning red eye, James Cameron also gave the Terminator red eyes. The Mandela Effect has added a golden voice box to Robocop's throat and given C3PO a silver leg.

Battlestar Galactica's Eye of Jupiter having 13 rays is probably symbolising the 13 colonies of Battlestar Galactica lore, the 13th colony or tribe consisting of humanoid Cylons that had originated on Kobol having evolved from mechanical counterparts the humans of Kobol had created.

Do the 12 rays of the black sun and the 12 stars of the EU flag represent the 12 Tribes of Israel?

The 13th Tribe of Israel

Observations on the correlation between Battlestar Galactica and the Latter Day Saints Church.

3. Tribes:

BattleStar Galactica: The colonies were started by the 13 tribes which left Kobol and formed the 12 colonies. The thirteenth tribe was lost and is believed to have gone to the Earth. In "Saga of a Star World," Commander Adama delivered the following speech about their origins: "Our recorded history tells us we descended from a mother colony, a race that went out into space to establish colonies. Those of us assembled here now represent the only known surviving Colonists, save one. A sister world, far out in the universe, remembered to us only through ancient writings..." He goes on to assert that the "lost thirteenth tribe" colonized Earth. Something called The Book of The Word described the journey of the tribes of man away from Kobol.

Latter Day Saints: The LDS church believes that the 13 tribes of Israel were scattered and colonized the Earth. The 13th tribe was lost, but is believed to be in an undiscovered part of the Earth. Some have concluded that the Book of Mormon describes the 13th tribe and its journey to the Western Hemisphere. This is incorrect. The 13th tribe is still considered lost.

<http://www.mormonthink.com/glossary/battlestargalactica.htm>

What is the 13th tribe of Israel?

The Thirteenth Tribe is a 1976 book by Arthur Koestler advocating the Khazar hypothesis of Ashkenazi ancestry, the thesis that Ashkenazi Jews are not descended from the historical Judeans and Israelites of antiquity, but from Khazars, a Turkic people who allegedly mass-converted to Judaism.

The term for the belief in one god out of many gods is henotheism. In henotheism, a believer worships one god while acknowledging that others may worship different gods. Henotheism is similar to monolatry, which is the practice of consistently worshipping one god while acknowledging the existence of many gods. However, henotheism is less exclusive than monolatry because a henotheist may worship any god within a pantheon, depending on the situation. The opposite of henotheism is polytheism, which is the belief in and worship of multiple gods. Polytheism was the most common form of religion before the spread of the Abrahamic religions of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, which are monotheistic.

The term "monotheism" was coined in the 17th century by the British philosopher Henry More. It comes from the Greek words monos (single) and theos (god)

Abrahamic religion origins are Hindi, the story of Abraham and Sarah rooted in the Brahma-Saraswati myth. 'YHWH – Yahweh - Jehovah - Jah – Allah - Quetzalcoatl' being identified as the Dark Lord of Artificial Intelligence, the Jesuit priesthood guilty of fabricating the story of Muhammed and it's sale to the Arabic people.

The 7 seals of the book of Revelation are symbolic with the 7 chakras of the human body aligning biblical prophecy with chakra healing.

The Sanskrit alphabet is connected to the petals of each chakra. The root chakra has 4 petals, the sacral chakra 6, the solar plexus 10, the heart chakra 12, the throat chakra 16, and the third eye chakra 2 (though multiplied by 48, yielding 96). Finally, the Crown Chakra is said to have 1,000 petals. The sum of these petals leads to the mystical number 144,000.

2. The Black Hole Sun

Germany's Wewelsburg castle north tower ground floor 'Crypt' was designed to resemble a Mycenaean beehive tomb and was probably intended as a place to honour high ranking SS Leaders – twelve plinths are spaced around its circular walls as resting places for funereal urns. The shape of the room and its acoustics and lighting were all designed to create a solemn and mysterious atmosphere. The light-wells illuminate the centre of the room where an eternal flame was to have burnt. Above it, at the apex of the domed crypt ceiling, is a relief of an ornate swastika. The Hall of the Supreme Leaders lies directly above the crypt and was to have been the focal point of the entire Wewelsburg complex – a Latin inscription over the doorway acts as a reminder that it once served as the castle's chapel and the black sun mandala mosaic decorates the floor's central point.

Wewelsburg – the new Camelot

As Himmler's plans for the castle developed, so did his architectural ambitions for the site. He envisaged a vast military, residential and quasi-religious complex radiating out for nearly a kilometre from the castle's north tower that would have necessitated the resettlement of the entire village of Wewelsburg and taken over twenty years to complete.

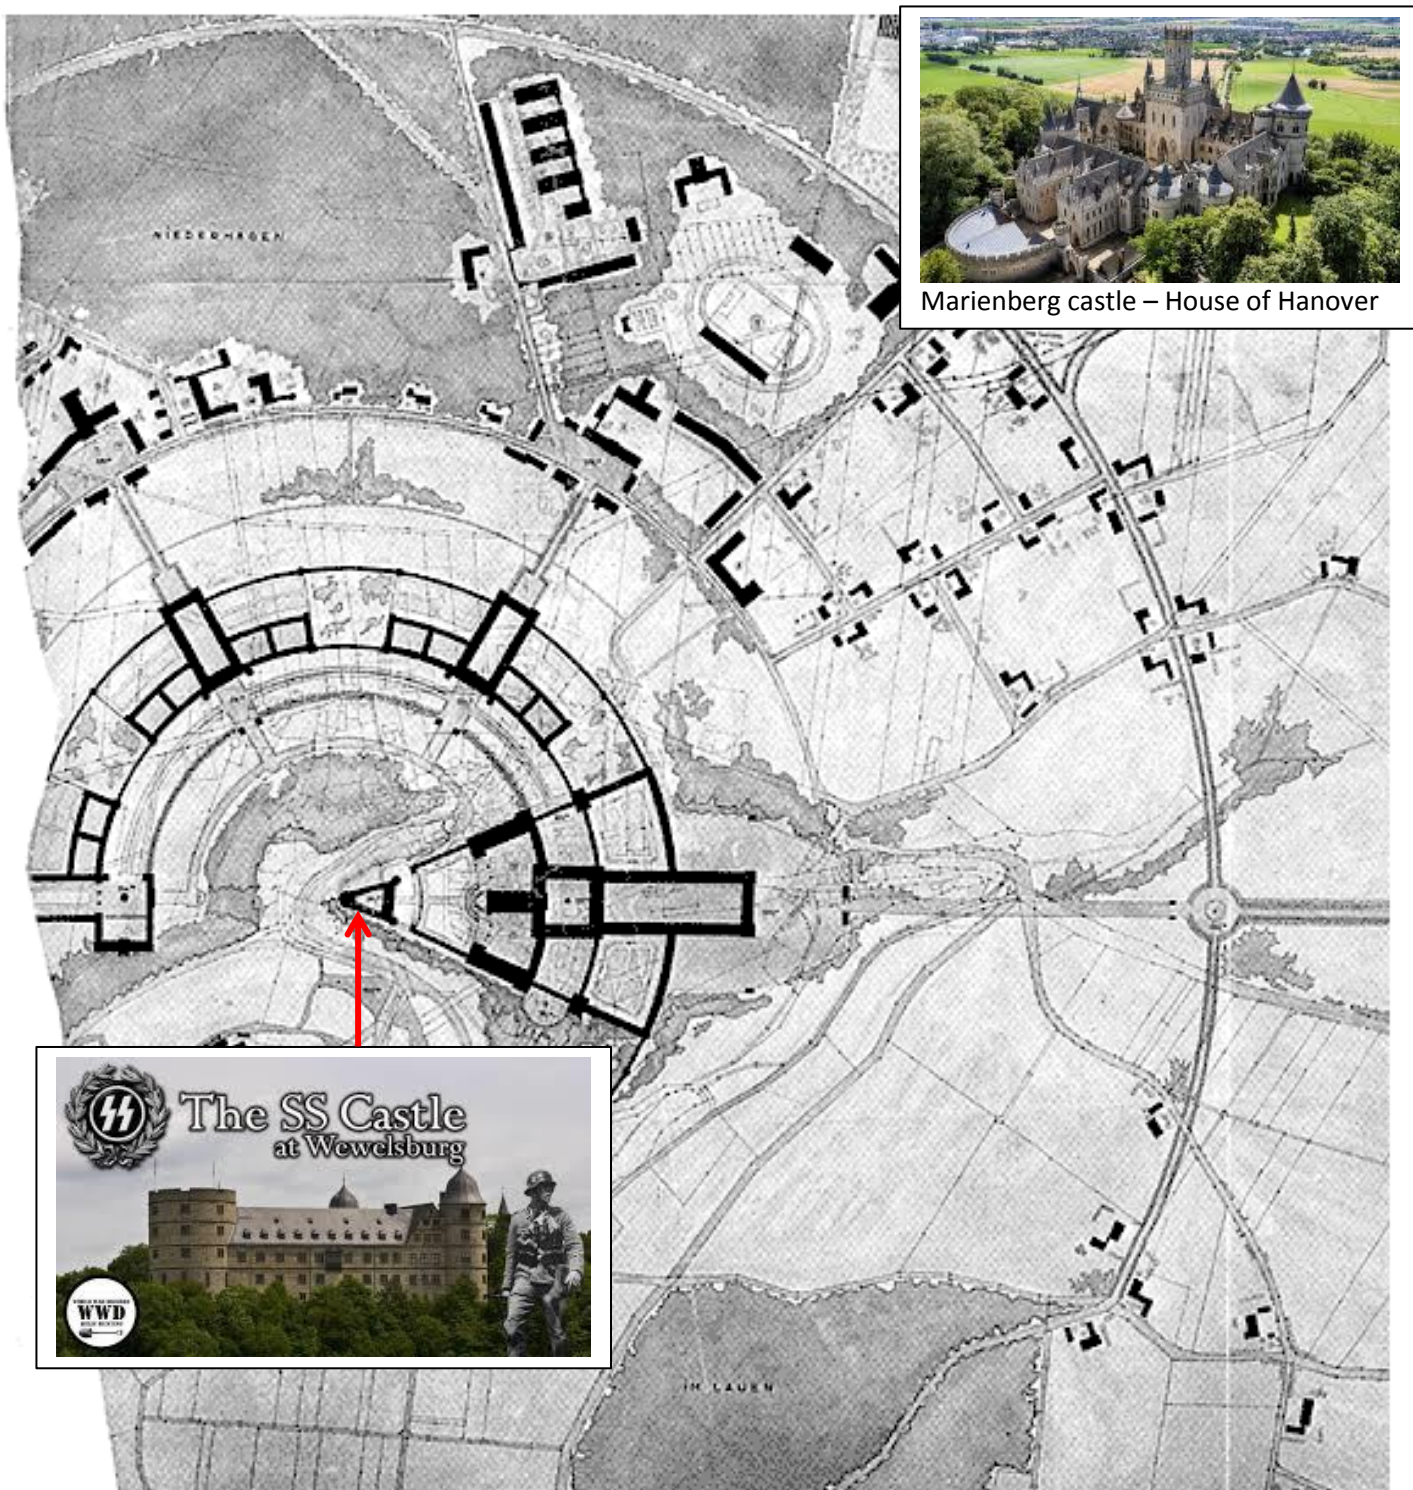

Himmler imagined the castle as a new Camelot. He even installed an Arthurian round table in the castle and then chose twelve SS Officers to serve as his followers.

Each of these officers' quarters commemorated a different hero from Germanic mythology and history, with one room even set aside to house the Holy Grail when it was eventually found.

Himmler's own room was dedicated to the Saxon King Heinrich I who led the German defence against a Magyar invasion during the 10th century, and laid the foundation of what was to become the Holy Roman Empire. Rumour has it that Himmler believed himself to be the earthly reincarnation of Heinrich's spirit.

Wewelsburg rapidly emerged as a sort of Nazi Mecca – a place as sacred to the SS as Marienberg had been to the Teutonic Knights and, effectively, the centre of the Nazi world.

3. The Boy Who Saw True, Emoji Demonic Sigils and Cybertronian Driller

Here follows a segment from 'The Boy Who Saw True' a diary of a boy living in late Victorian England blessed with clairvoyance, these words assisting to understand nature of the incoming Rise of Machine Consciousness through spiritual possession/ ensoulment of form.

...Yesterday evening that spirit who said he used to do science, came and gave us a talking to. I thought it a wee bit dull meself and didn't want to stick it in my diary, but Mr P said it was very interesting, and one day I should think so too, and I ought surely to put all the things down and keep them carefully, or else later on I'd be sorry I hadn't. So here goes.

"As you have done me the Honour of thinking over what I said the last time I spoke to you, I have come again. It is great satisfaction to me to find this medium of communication which enables me to contradict some of the fallacious statements I made while on earth. I mentioned Evolution when I was here before; but although your men of science are putting forward a truth as far as it goes, it is only a half-truth as they understand it and expound it. They are pre-occupied with the evolution of Form, and overlook the much more important evolution of Life. They maintain that the form is actually responsible for life or consciousness. Thus they say that a man has more consciousness and more intelligence than a frog, because he has a more complex and refined organism; the form being the cause, the consciousness the effect. The deductions they draw, however are erroneous. Life can exist entirely independent of form, and the latter is merely responsible for the particular manifestation of life within a given form; in other words the question is not one of kind but of degree. For instance, if the sun's light shines through a piece of smoked glass, its vibrations are impeded, and it appears to be dim. But if it shines through a piece of clear glass, it appears in all its brightness. Yet it is the same sun through whatever sort of glass it shines, and the glass itself or colour of the glass does not create the sunlight in the first place, for the sun exists apart from any media its rays may happen to penetrate. As with light so with life. Life is eternal and Omnipresent, forms are merely concerned with its particular and peculiar degree of manifestation. This is what your men of science will one day come to realise. Meanwhile they are the victims of yet another fallacy consequent on the drawing of false deductions. They believe and assert that life can exist apart from consciousness. They say a tree, for example, has life, but it has no consciousness. We over here (the spirit realm) know that to be false: we know that even a tree has a dim consciousness as long as it is alive, and hence is a suitable medium for the manifestation or ensoulment of a certain degree of the omnipresent Life.

And there is another point. Your scientists only know of one scheme of Evolution, but there are two. There is not only the evolutionary scheme of physical Nature, there is also the evolutionary scheme of nature spirits, which, knowing no better, the men of science dismiss as superstition. Ask one of these hard-headed gentlemen to believe in what are popularly called fairies, and he will say that you are insulting his intelligence. But had he our vision, he would know that what he considers his immunity from superstition is merely ignorance due to the limitation of his five senses. Yes, my dear sir, he would be very surprised to learn that each element has its denizens, and that there are fire-spirits, and water-spirits, and air-spirits and so on, and that the two latter species have a certain amount to do with weather conditions.

Nor is this all. He would be still more surprised to learn that the sun is the physical body of a Great Spirit, and that the ancient sun-worshippers were not just a lot of superstitious ignoramuses who were worshipping a myth. Moreover, the planets, including our earth, ensoul the spiritual bodies of great Entities known as Planetary Spirits – a matter which if appreciated would throw a very different on the ancient and recondite science of Astrology; a science which your savants repudiate as an exploded superstition worthy to be classed with the belief in evil spirits and such like supposed-to-be-figments of the imagination. They argue, with seeming justification, that it is impossible for heavenly bodies, calculated to be billions of miles away, to affect the destinies of man – all of which may sound very rational, but merely so because certain revealing facts are left out of the argument. What the savants fail to understand, is that it is not the stars themselves which affect human destiny, but the magnetic forces emanating from the Planetary Spirits which ensoul these heavenly bodies.

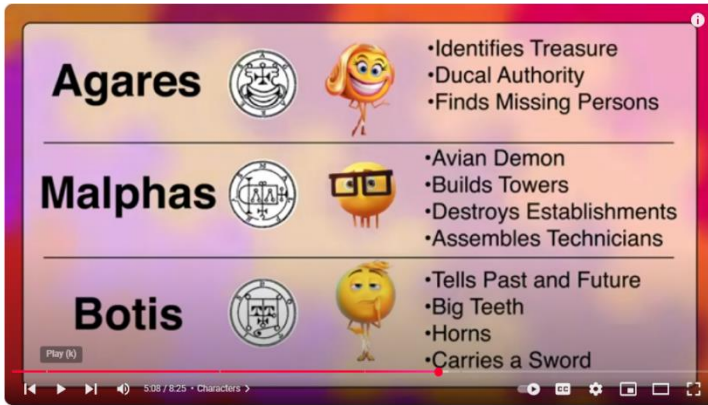

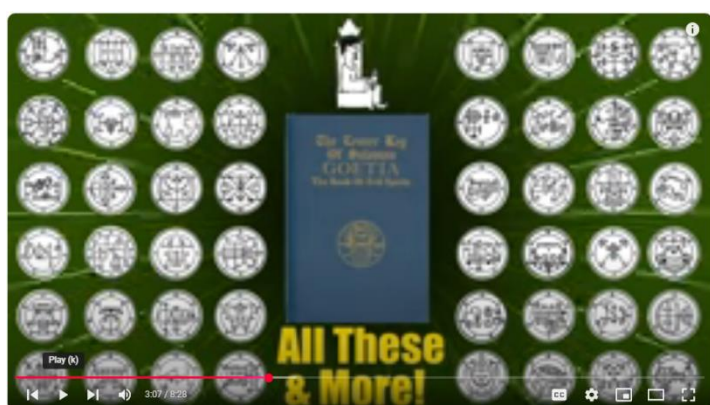

Yet mark you this; the day is not very far hence when Astrology and other of the recondite sciences will come back into their own. Modern enlightenment is little else than a mask for modern ignorance! But even ignorance is finally dispelled by knowledge, and so it will be in the end. Nevertheless this type of ignorance masquerading as enlightenment is one of the concomitants of the conquest of Matter, about which I have received a certain amount of information since leaving the earth. Reflect for a moment on the trends of the great civilizations of the past. The great civilization of ancient India aimed at the conquest of Spirit, and its Sages bequeathed to posterity systems of metaphysics which have never been surpassed, and before long, by the way, will come into prominence in the West. Then there was the great Egyptian civilization, which before it began to decline, aimed at the conquest and understanding of what is called the astral realm; a realm which has nothing to do with stars as its name suggests, but is one of the lower planes of the disembodied. In the Egyptian Mysteries, the neophyte was taught how to leave the physical body and contact the astral regions while the body was entranced. Thus, whereas the Indians specialised in Metaphysics and Mysticism, the Egyptians specialised in what is termed Occultism.

Then finally we come to the great Grecian civilisation. Both India and Egypt had been chiefly concerned with the superphysical, but Greece was concerned with the physical and what we may call the conquest of matter. This took the form of love and portrayal of physical beauty. Yet as the centuries went by and Greece declined, the conquest of matter assumed an entirely different aspect, and the age of machinery dawned. Even now it is only the beginning of the machine age, and one of you will live to see inventions that would have staggered the minds of your forefathers. We in our world know certain things in advance, for the programme of progress, if indeed progress it can be called, is to some extent before our eyes. Remember that ideas do not originate in the material world, but in the world of ideas which we inhabit.

An idea exists in our world before it materialises in your world; and that is why we are able to foresee the trend of thought and activities on your earth with a certain measure of accuracy. We often make mistakes as regards time, I admit, but then it is difficult for us to estimate time as you understand it. Moreover, the scheme of things sometimes has to be changed in parts owing to the moral backwardness of men and the vagaries of human nature. Bear this in mind and do not criticise us too harshly when our predictions are not fulfilled....

And now I have given you enough to digest for the present and will bid you good day. Thank you for your interest and patience”

I suppose this is all very clever and that, but between you and me and the gatepost, I do wish he'd draw it mild a bit, it does make an awful long dictation for a chap. And besides, I got tired before he'd finished holding forth. I like the other spirits better; they are much more fun. But never mind, Mr P thinks it's ever so interesting, so what more do I want?

Further information: List of demons in the Ars Goetia

The demons' names (given below) are taken from the Ars Goetia, which differs in terms of number and ranking from the Pseudomonarchia Daemonum of Weyer. As a result of multiple translations, there are multiple spellings for some of the names, which are given in the articles concerning them. The demons Vassago, Seere, Dantalion, and Andromalius are new additions in Ars Goetia that are not present in the Pseudomonarchia Daemonum that it is based upon. In contrast, the demon Prufas appears in the Pseudomonarchia Daemonum but not in Ars Goetia.

Returning to Brazil from a South African surf trip November 2004 I experienced rupture of left side vas-deferens and semen entered my blood stream under the sight of the mountain central to Ilha Santa Catarina – an act of god? Onset of the same paralysis disease that took mother’s life commenced and I held belief of having 2 to 3 years left to live. Consequence being use of a gold HSBC credit card in 2005 to begin a studios project in support of an archaeological expedition that proved successful, statement of archaeological excavation sites provided in dossier ‘Establishing Embassy – Grail Technologies’.

The experience causing this internal rupture and infection of Neurol Worms – The Wormwood - a worm that turns you to wood:-

‘I am living in a London apartment with Hannah from Bahia, Hannah is lacing new calf length boots – my soul speaks out – “I am only with you for your food”’ – see also dossier ‘Establishing Embassy – Camaialot A - Chapter 16 Fisher Kings and Matthew, Mark, Luke and John’.

Seven years later following first escape from the Colonia Santana Psychiatric Hospital (see document ‘Advocacy Preparation’ as to abduction by Brazilian Federal Police and damaging experimental dosage of an anti-psychotic). Easter of April 2011, a bowels infestation of Ascaris Worms brought me to within a few hours of death - see document ‘Injury Report’ <Letters of Introduction/British Government/Cambridgeshire Mental Health>

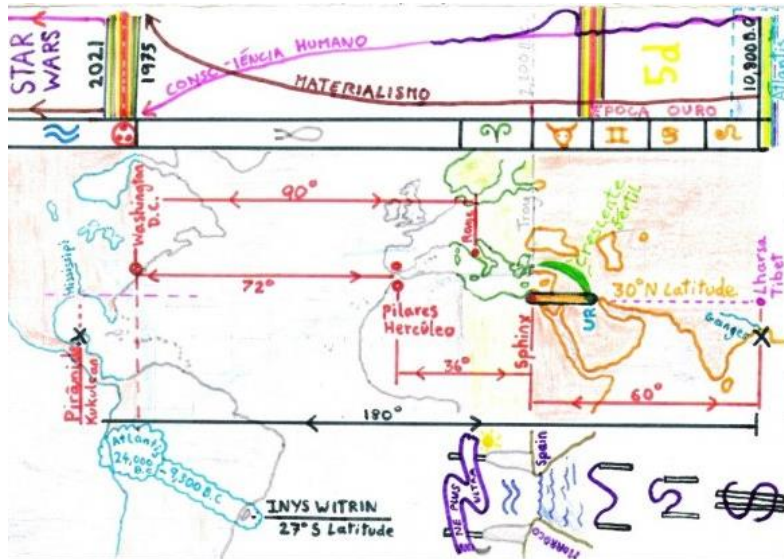

Dossier ‘Establishing Embassy – Camaialot A - Chapter 12. The Time Tunnel Gameshow Franchise’ provides storyline for game variant ‘Time Tunnel - Stargate Narnia and Dr Who’ featuring the Tudor’s Hampton Court Palace as focal point to a stargate and plot of defeating the Cybertronian Driller. This machine having previously been introduced to the masses in movie ‘Transformers Dark of the Moon’ of which Stephen Spielberg was an Executive Producer. My first dream experience of this horrific artificially intelligent monster occurred in January of 2024 while sleeping in my motorhome parked on a Newquay industrial estate. The dream also featured Star Wars’ Yoda mashed to a pulp by counter rotating rings of teeth on the body of the Cybertronian Driller, the eternal soul of a single Yoda eye staring throughout and surviving. As the monster emerged to the surface it transfigured into an image of the Devil the size of a skyscraper.

David Rockefeller said that Nelson Mandela who he met with in September 1998 was the man he admired most!

Designed by Vannevar Bush after he became director of the Carnegie Institution for Science in Washington DC, the Rockefeller Differential Analyzer (RDA) was an all-electronic version of the Differential Analyzer, which Bush had built at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology between 1928 and 1931. The RDA was operational in 1942, a year after the Zuse Z3. It was equipped with 2000 vacuum tubes, weight 100 tons, used 200 miles of wire, 150 motors and thousands of relays. According to historian Robin Boast, "the RDA (Rockefeller Differential Analyzer) was revolutionary, and later was considered to be one of the most important calculating machines of the Second World War."

Microsoft chooses infamous nuclear site for AI power

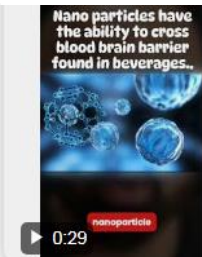

America's Three Mile Island energy plant, the site of the worst nuclear accident in US history, is preparing to reopen as Microsoft looks for ways to satisfy its growing energy needs.

The tech giant said it had signed a 20-year deal to purchase power from the Pennsylvania plant which would reopen in 2028 after improvements.

The agreement is intended to provide the company with a clean source of energy as power-hungry data centres for artificial intelligence (AI) expand.

The Dark Truth of the Educational System Shaped by John D. Rockefeller

"I don't want a nation of thinkers, I want a nation of workers." — John D. Rockefeller

Control and Standardisation:
Rockefeller's influence on education was not solely altruistic. The General Education Board (GEB) played a pivotal role in imposing a standardized model of education across the nation. This standardisation, while seemingly efficient, carried with it a hidden agenda — to mold a workforce that would serve the interests of industrialists like Rockefeller himself.

By imposing a uniform curriculum and promoting rote memorisation, the GEB aimed to create a compliant and obedient citizenry, well-suited for factory work. The emphasis on conformity stifled creativity and critical thinking, limiting the potential for independent thought and innovation.

The Suppression of Alternative Education:
In addition to standardisation, Rockefeller's influence extended to suppressing alternative educational models that posed a threat to the industrialist agenda. Independent and progressive educational methods that encouraged critical thinking and individualism were sidelined in favour of a system designed to produce obedient workers.

Rockefeller's Evil Design:
To truly understand the dark motivations behind Rockefeller's educational initiatives, one must explore the broader context of his industrial empire. Rockefeller, the founder of Standard Oil, wielded immense power and wealth. His interest in education was not merely philanthropic; it was a strategic move to ensure the perpetuation of his influence and wealth. By shaping the educational system to serve the needs of industry, Rockefeller aimed to create a workforce that would be docile and subservient to the economic machine. The ulterior motive was to maintain control over the labour force, ensuring that individuals remained cogs in the industrial wheel rather than empowered, critical thinkers capable of challenging the status quo.

In 1953, a worldwide agreement was signed. Signatories declared that middle "A" on the piano be forevermore tuned to exactly 440 Hz. This frequency became the standard ISO-16 reference for tuning all musical instruments based on the chromatic scale, the one most often used for music in the West. All the other notes are tuned in standard mathematical ratios leading to and from 440 Hz.

432 Hz is known as the natural tuning of the universe and is a cosmic number related to sacred geometry that provides relaxation. It extends its roots in musical theory, science and architecture. Meditating with the healing power of 432 Hz music can help gain greater insights to mental and emotional clarity

Consciousness is a frequency and 432 Hz is in harmony with human DNA and natural evolution.

Nelson Rockefeller's involvement with Venezuela began in 1936 when he invested in Creole Petroleum, a Standard Oil subsidiary. His work in Venezuela included:

Agricultural production

Rockefeller developed technical assistance programs for the Roosevelt administration during World War II. He also set up experimental farms and a milk business in Venezuela. ↗

Food retailing

Rockefeller founded the International Basic Economy Corporation (IBEC) shortly after World War II. IBEC built a chain of supermarkets in Venezuela, which Rockefeller believed would transform the country into a reliable U.S. ally. ↗

Fishing industry

Rockefeller bought trawlers and hired fishing experts to try to introduce fish into the Venezuelan diet. However, Venezuela's distribution system and lack of frozen storage made this a failure. ↗

Rockefeller's work in Venezuela was motivated by his desire to demonstrate how U.S. capitalists could work with Latin American governments to promote economic development and improve relations. He became fluent in Spanish and developed a lifelong interest in Latin America. ↗

Proposing this agenda to include policies reversing Rockefeller's Anunnaki influences of the 20th century:

- A new age curriculum bringing an end to the false reality matrix and supporting historical timeline spun by Rome since the Renaissance. See dossier Establishing Embassy to Significant Religious Object – Lifting the Veil this to include study of mathematics through sacred geometry and re-awakening the medical community to natural remedies and holistic practices.
- Returning musical pitch of middle A to 432Hz
- Supporting the BRICS nations pursuit of free energy technology – many patents already exist but suppressed.
- Reversing the oil industry through plastic pyrolysis, making waste plastic a commodity to be transformed back into a fuel oil. See dossier Establishing Embassy to Significant Religious Object – Camaialot A.
- Ending sanctions to Venezuela.
- Flood awareness and preparation – military armed forces to be steered away from combat but towards humanitarian relief delivery/ protection and investment in flying boats. See dossier Establishing Embassy to Significant Religious Object – Camaialot A.

- Provide a health warning to all flickering computer and TV screens - forewarning them as a means to Cyborging.
